BIG NEW CHINESE CHURCH IS HOPE OF SETTLEMENT

One result of the many years of work which has been done at the Beretania Settlement by Mr. and Mrs. Eljah MacKenzie, may be the erection of a large Chinese church as a part of the settlement.

A committee consisting of Theodore Richards, Rev. Akai Akana and Rev. H. P. Judd, all of whom are closely connected with the work of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, has been appointed to investigate the status of the settlement with a view to determining the necessity of such a church and the source from which the funds will come, should it be decided to build.

A meeting of the attendants at the settlement will be held on Wednesday evening, September 15, to discuss the matter. It was reported today that organization undoubtedly will be perfected at that time.

The plans for the proposed church, however, are yet in their infancy, and nothing definite could be learned today regarding the cost of such a structure, or the method of raising the money.

'JITNEY SALE' AT BENSON, SMITH'S

Benson, Smith & Company at Hotel and Fort streets will inaugurate a "jitney" sale of toilet and other articles tomorrow morning and the sale will continue for 3 days only.

The method is an innovation in merchandising here and customers will have an opportunity of buying in some instances, a $2 article for five cents by merely paying an additional five cents for a second one. The same rule applies to the less expensive goods—two ten-cent articles being sold for fifteen cents. The firm assures its patrons that prices have not been increased for the occasion. A partial list of the 200 different articles appears in a half page advertisement today. The sale will begin tomorrow.

A MESSAGE TO THIN. WEAK, SORAWNY FOLKS

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative function of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point.

Caution:—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co., and Hollister Drug Co.—advertisement.

A parole was granted yesterday by the governor to F. M. Eklow, convicted in the district court of Honolulu on May 29 on a vagrancy charge and sentenced to serve six months. Isaac Kahookano, who was serving time in the territorial prison, was also paroled.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS CHOOSES DEATH; SAVED BY FRIEND

Death before dishonor is the choice of a trusted employee of a large financial institution, but he is saved by the influence of a friend. George Morgan and William Jefferson take the leading parts in the two-act production, "Cousin Pons," an attractive feature to be shown at the Empire theater today. It is a dramatic story, not the least of whose charm is the variety of unusual and richly contrasted scenes. Louise Vale and Thornton Cole, favorites with patrons of the silent stage, are congenially cast in the play.

Mabel Trunnell is said to be wistful in the title role of Olive in the fourth episode of the Olive series, which of late have been featured at the Empire. The story appeared in a late popular monthly magazine and is the best of a number of stories by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow. The adventures of the young gypsy are vividly portrayed.

Sydney Drew will reappear at the Empire in a clever skit, "Auntie's Portrait." Drew is assisted by Jane Marion in getting all the fun out of the farce. A new world's pictorial news picture will also be shown.

BROADHURST COMEDY MOVES FAST

"What Happened to Jones," George Broadhurst's comedy, featuring Fred Mace, Josie Sadler, Mary Charlson and an all-star cast, will commence to make folks laugh at the Bijou theater tonight and is guaranteed to keep up the good work for the remainder of the week.

Events move fast in "What Happened to Jones?" and with every move there is thrown in a double-barrelled laugh. Commencing in an academy for young ladies the auditor is taken to witness a prize fight—which is raided by the police—whisked over house-tops in the "getaway" of the heroes of the story, meets a bishop from Timbuctoo and sees him arrested as a lunatic for the simple reason that he escapes from durance vile while arrayed in a blanket; sees the real lunatic chase Jones and the young lady from the academy whom he intends to make his wife, sees Jones arrayed in the garb of the worthy bishop and numerous other events.

MAX FIGMAN HAS CONGENIAL ROLE

Max Figman, in the character of Jack Chanty, from which the feature picture running at the Popular theater this week takes its title, has a role that fits his particular style of acting admirably. He diffuses good fellowship, wit and honesty, and throughout the photo-play his acting is said to be compelling from every angle. The love of Chanty for the quarter-Indian beauty (Lolita Robertson) and the latter's fidelity to her white hero develops a romance of the wild west and early mining days.

Wherever Max Figman appears, on the legitimate stage or in the movies, there is action; and "Jack Chanty" is full of action from beginning to end.

Once during the action of the drama the lure of civilization and a fashionable society belle draws Chanty away from the backwoods and his quarter-breed sweetheart, but the sham of city life soon disgusts him and drives him back to the mining camp and his sweetheart of the forests.

"Jack Chanty" is given at two shows nightly, the first beginning at 7:15 o'clock promptly and the second at 9 o'clock.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE FRITZI ACT

Honolulu photo-play fans have another "Queen of the Films" and with her advent their old favorites had better look to their laurels. The new found queen is Fritzi Scheff and she is appearing at the Liberty theater in "Pretty Mrs. Smith." She terminates her present engagement tonight. "Pretty Mrs. Smith" deals with the complications which would naturally arise when a charming woman marries first an austere clergyman, then a romantic poet, and last a wealthy clubman. Each of the first two husbands, according to the best belief of Mrs. Smith, is dead. However, the three Mr. Smiths—that's the name of each hubby—meet at the hotel in which their wife is stopping and the complications become more involved than ever.

The almost Chinese puzzle is worked out to the entire satisfaction of the lady in question and at least one of the husbands is well pleased.

The present episode of "The Exploits of Elaine" is a strong photo-play and almost worthy of "feature" honors.

O'ROARK BENEFIT PLANS GROWING

Miss Jane O'Roark, the young actress who came to Honolulu a few weeks ago to amuse the residents of this city, and who was attacked by pneumonia before she had appeared for one week, is believed to be at the present time on the road to recovery.

Owing to the fact that the young actress, due to her illness, has been unable to appear at the theater and thereby has lost considerable money in addition to her heavy hospital expenses, her local friends have arranged a large benefit performance to be given in her behalf at the Bijou theater the evening of Wednesday, September 15. The Consolidated Amusement Company has kindly donated the theater for the occasion and Broderick O'Farrell and Rupert Drum, associates of Miss O'Roark, have taken hold of arrangements and, together with a number of prominent Honoluluans, plan an elaborate bill of vaudeville for the evening in question.
